Message from the Headmaster

Dear Parents and Students

Being back at College now is beginning to feel less novel and more routine, in great part that is very much a credit to the staff and students who have continued to comply with the requirements to maintain a safe learning environment. However, the Prime Minister made clear this week we do have a hard road ahead of us over the coming months. As the weather begins to turn less pleasant and the darker nights approach it is very important that we all remain vigilant and not become complacent. Remember to sanitise HANDS, to cover FACES and give each other SPACE.

Best wishes for a restful weekend and for a good week ahead.

God Bless

Gerard Owens
